Claims 1 and 20 are presented for examination.

Applicants' request for continued examination, amendment, response and declaration under 1.132 filed May 8, 2009 have been received and entered.

Claim 20 is withdrawn from consideration as being drawn to the non-elected invention (37 CFR 1.142(b)).

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claim 1 is rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 11 of U.S. Patent No. 6,498,187 B2. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the present application teaches a composition comprising: (a) fludarabine; (b) compound 181; and (c) a pharmaceutically acceptable carrier; and the patented application teaches compound 181 can be formulated into composition with the addition of other anti-cancer agent(s), as set forth in column 86, lines 45-49.

Clearly, the patented application teaches the compound 181 can be combined with anti-cancer agent(s) wherein fludarabine is an anti-cancer agent.

Claim 1 is not allowed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Montgomery (4,210,745) of record, in view of Stamos et al. (WO 00/56331) of PTO-1449, all of record, for reasons of record as set forth in the previous Office action dated November 12, 2008 at pages 3-4 as applied to claims 1, 2, 4-6, 10, 11 and 22.

Applicants' remarks regarding the combination of two prior art references do not teach the "surprising and unexpected synergistic rather than additive" increase in anti-cancer activity are not persuasive since the applicants' submitted declaration under 1.132 showing unexpected results for the combination of the two individual agents at a 1 : 1 ratio. These results are unexpected results of "an additive effect" rather than "a synergistic effect". Again, the declaration shows unexpected results for the additive effect of the combination. Where the synergistic effect is the exact individual amount of (a) fludarabine, and the exact individual amount of (b) compound 181, for example, 5 mg of (a) and 6.7 mg of (b) produces unexpected synergistic effects.

The rejection made under 35 USC 103(a) is adhered to.

Claim 1 is not allowed.
